Jer's Handmade Chocolates

Other chocolates-makers may mess around with fancy fusion flavors and new designs, but Jer sticks with the classics: He mixes peanut butter balls with just a bit of rice crisps for crunch, then dips them in dark, white or milk chocolate. But if you are the kind that likes a little something special, he'll toss in some pretzel bits, a touch of caramel or toffee, too. The 1-pound assorted box in blue is $32 from www.jers.com
